April 11-17, 2018

Washington DC ~

Cherry Blossoms Festival

7 Days - April 11-17, 2018

The National Cherry Blossom Festival commemorates the 1912 gift of 3,000 cherry trees from Mayor Yukio Ozaki of Tokyo to the city of Washington, DC each year. Since then the number of trees expanded to approximately 3,750 trees (16 varieties). Today the National Cherry Blossom Festival has grown from modest beginnings into the nation's greatest springtime celebration. Various stages of bloom are each wonderful in their own way, from the vivid pink of the buds about to burst, to the softer pink of the blossoms, and then the snowy white environment of the petals falling off the trees. No matter when you visit during the cherry blossom season, you will see something memorable happening at the Tidal Basin. Bring your camera and capture these breathtaking views and memories.
